PAUL BYRNE, SC

The Paul Byrne Memorial Fund commemorates the life and career of Paul Byrne SC who died in 2009. He was beloved by family, friends, class mates from North Sydney Boys High School, Sydney Law School’s Graduating Class of 1976, and colleagues at the Bar and in the Judiciary. He will be remembered for his generosity of spirit, his kindness and his consideration for those around him. Paul was judged a truly outstanding criminal lawyer by his peers. He had a life long interest in the criminal law and the criminal justice system, and was an active participant in and a generous supporter of the Institute of Criminology at the University of Sydney throughout his career.

Paul Byrne graduated in Arts and Law from the University of Sydney, and worked with the Public Solicitor’s Office as a solicitor. He became a barrister in 1979, and was appointed a public defender. In 1983 he was awarded a Master of Laws degree with First Class Honours, and was awarded a University Medal. He was appointed Director of the Criminal Law Review Division and a Commissioner of the New South Wales Law Reform Commission. In 1995 he took silk and continued an outstanding career as an advocate, taking on the toughest cases, in courts at all levels, with a deep sense of responsibility and the utmost commitment to justice and fair process.

The Paul Byrne Memorial Fund seeks to honour and continue Paul’s interest in the criminal justice system by supporting the ongoing activities of the Institute of Criminology, such as lectures, seminars, publications, and awards.
